14
15	Plaintiff Robert Michael Williams has filed a response to the undersigned's motion to
16	withdraw as his counsel. It consists of numerous allegations of misconduct by the undersigned.  There is not a word of truth in any of the allegations. Responding point by point would serve no purpose.
19 20	What the response proves is that the motion should be granted. Williams states at page 1 of
21	his declaration that the "professional relationship" has broken down.
22	At page 3, Williams states "he has new counsel." However, for reasons unknown to the
23	undersigned, Williams has refused the undersigned's requests that he substitute in a new attorney.
24	The undersigned requests that this Court dispense with oral argument given Dr Willilams'
25	non-opposition to the motion and that the order be entered without delay.
